

This is an alphabet of life, an aid to thinking that you can use for practical philosophy or divination anywhere by yourself or in conversation with anyone. Example: If you have a pressing question get it vividly in mind but clear your mind of hopes and fears. Imagine speaking to the Alphabeticon like to a person and ask for a letter or number, make more than one. Interpret the result you're given. Over time study this art of asking and listening, always seeking the voice of truth, love and beauty. This system is based on Tarot.
